The Gospel reading for the Second Sunday of Epiphany - John 1 v 29-42

The Lamb of God

The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Chosen One."

The First Disciples of Jesus

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

Last Sunday, the Martin family of Nunton Farm brought their family plough to Nunton Church for Plough Sunday.

This plough belonged to John Martin, Simon's grandfather, and was worked behind cart horses before tractors arrived on the farm in the 1930s. The plough was blessed by Rhoddy Vorenberg, the new agricultural chaplain, and Revd Dr Ruth Howlett-Shipley.

Plough Sunday is a traditional January service marking the start of the farming year, asking for protection over the land and for a safe and productive growing season ahead.

Please note that the clergy team is available throughout the week and a member of the team is always available in an emergency or for an immediate pastoral need.
