The Gospel Reading for Sunday 1st February

John 2 v 1 - 11 - The Wedding at Cana

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to me and to you? My hour has not yet come."

F is for Field

An illustrated talk by Libby Dineley
in Berwick St John Village Hall
on Saturday January 31st at 7 p.m.

"It may seem a strange topic: I am going to give a talk, with plenty of pictures, about the history of a field, 62 acres of Manor Farm. How does a field start? Who fenced it round and gave it a name? Who farmed it over the last few hundred years? What grows in it and how does it change with the seasons? What ancient articles have been found beneath the turf?"

Tickets at the door £10, including a glass of wine, in support of the Berwick Bulletin.

His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the person in charge of the banquet." So they took it. When the person in charge tasted the water that had become wine and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), that person called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee and revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.
