Three Towers Fete – Fovant

The 'Three Towers Fete' is being run for the first time on Saturday 15th June, for the five communities of Compton Chamberlayne, Fovant, Sutton Mandeville, Sutton Row and Chicks Grove on the old cricket ground at Fovant; it will be easily found in a spectacular setting off the A30 below the chalk badges.

There will be something for all visitors and especially for children - a paper hat parade & competition will start the arena programme of: traditional races, tug of war, paper aeroplane making and races and much more. There will be a separate arena for a dog show (fun classes) and dog-races. Arts & Crafts competition exhibits will be on display with four local history groups' displays adding to the occasion. Live music from the Bell Street Jazz Band and the Wilton Royal British Legion Band will set the pace as visitors enjoy the stalls, sideshows, demonstrations and pony riding. A barbecue, cream teas, a bar, provided by the local pub The Greater Good, and ice creams will provide for most needs. www.threetowersfete.org
